If you are paying by check, please make them out to “John Madormo.”

The Homemade Stuffing Caper (hardcover—$10.00)

Charlie Collier is a whiz when it comes to brain teasers and word problems. He’s also the go-to guy when friends and teachers find themselves in a pickle, but lately Charlie finds himself yearning for a big score. So he puts up signs around the school and waits in his parents’ garage to see what mysteries stumble in. And one does! Soon Charlie finds himself hot on the trail of an evildoer and realizes he’ll need more than smarts to solve this case.

The Camp Phoenix Caper (hardcover—$10.00)

Charlie Collier is back solving mysteries out of his parents’ garage, and this one’s a doozy! Actually, there may be more than just one mystery out there to solve. One of Charlie’s friends, Sherman, contacts the young sleuth when his older brother goes missing. And then there’s a series of robberies in town involving masked teenagers. Could they be related? Charlie is forced to go undercover to solve this case.

The Copycat Caper (paperback—$8.00)

Super-sleuth Charlie Collier is thinking about taking a hiatus from his detective agency to play a private eye in a school play—but when some real robberies stump the police, Charlie realizes that detective work really is his true calling. He and his sidekicks Henry and Scarlett team up with Charlie’s grandma and her old buddy Eugene to set a trap for the robber—one they’re sure will catch him. But the trap doesn’t work out quite the way they thought it would, leaving Charlie, Henry and Scarlett in grave danger.

The Buried Treasure Caper (paperback—$8.00)

When Cassie Caldwell, a reporter for the school newspaper, asks Charlie to break into the teachers’ lounge to investigate the contents of a time capsule that has been unearthed after fifty years, Charlie is hesitant, but reluctantly agrees. What he finds, a gold coin worth half a million dollars, becomes the missing puzzle piece that will help solve a murder that has gone unsolved for nearly five decades.
